

Then Imran heard an angry roar.

It was getting louder and louder.

A giant ape ran out of the fog.

It was coming to get Imran.

Mina and Yasmin picked up one of the big rocks.

They began to carry it over the sand.

It was hard work.

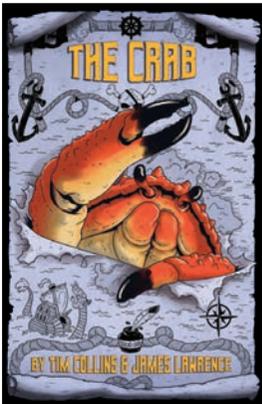

Suddenly, Yasmin screamed. She let go of the rock.

“What are you doing?” cried Mina.
“The rock nearly fell on my foot!”

Yasmin was holding her right foot.

It was pouring with blood.

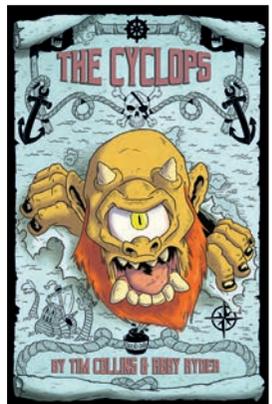

Kelly and Josh climbed down from the rock and ran into the woods.

The Cyclops ran at them.

It tried to bash them with its huge club.

Kelly and Josh ran as fast as they could, but the Cyclops was getting closer and closer.

“No! Keep still,” said Scott. “Then the dinosaur won’t see us.”

The dinosaur was getting closer and closer.
