

Vocabulary

Do you know these words? Look them up in a dictionary and then see how they are used in the book.

archaeologists

fossilised

causeways

hoards communal molten evidence temporary

1. THE FIRST PEOPLE IN BRITAIN

People first came to Britain nearly a million years ago. They were not like us: there have been four different types of human living here. Modern humans (homo sapiens) are the only survivors.

Homo antecessor
Arrived in Britain around 900,000 years ago

Homo heidelbergensis
Arrived in Britain around
500,000 years ago

Neanderthals
Arrived in Britain around
400,000 years ago

Homo Sapiens
Arrived in Britain around 40,000 years ago