

Chapter 2 - Shark Attack

The sharks circled the boat.

“Don’t move,” said Dad quietly. He opened a box in the bottom of the boat and pulled out a large orange bag.

“What’s that?” asked Hannah.

One of the sharks bumped against the boat. Hannah lost her balance and fell to the floor. Dad helped her up. “I don’t like the look of this,” he muttered.

Another of the sharks bumped the boat. There was a loud click.

Dad pulled a cord. The life raft began to inflate. A ticking sound came from under the boat.
