

Sunday

Back to school tomorrow. Real pain!
Why do we have to work when it's so good outside? Still – I get to see Simon again. Haven't seen him for a whole week!

And there's activity week. Mel and I are down for outdoor activities. We get to go to Wales to do canoeing, rock climbing and all sorts of good things.
And Si is down for the same trip.

Bad news – Mrs James has said if we don't start behaving we won't go.

This is so unfair. There are people in our tutor group far worse than us!
