

But Dan was already running incredibly fast towards the flats.

He went round the back and a minute later came out with the ball.

Jed, Tom and Nick were amazed.

“How did you do that?” asked Tom.

“He must have had another ball round there,” sneered Jed. “How pathetic!”

“How about that football match?” asked Dan.

“No way!” said Jed. “I am not playing with you and your freaky friend.”

And with that Jed and Tom headed off.

“That was brilliant!” grinned Nick.

Dan looked back at him.

“That was nothing,” he said.
