

ENGLISH

SHARPENER:

Spelling

Name

Badger
LEARNING

WORD FARM

Set deep in the countryside and hidden away behind these iron gates lies Word Farm. Chris is the owner of Word Farm. You can see him coming through the gates on the left.

Word Farm is the place where words are taken apart, recycled and put back together. This is dangerous work. Broken words leak letter radiation and the animals have become hyper-intelligent! This is good news for Chris because the animals help him with his work.

William

This horse is William. He pulls the heavy letters and words around between the workshops.

Construction shed

Bring your ear plugs because this is where all the action is. This is the home of...

... Baarbara and the Heavy Metal Gang

Baarbara, Martha and their gang are the flock who rock! They're the word wranglers. They find the best way to join letters by tying them together, stitching them up or welding them in place. They're great music fans, too, and love a bit of thrash metal! Can you see Baarbara? She's the one wearing a welding mask!

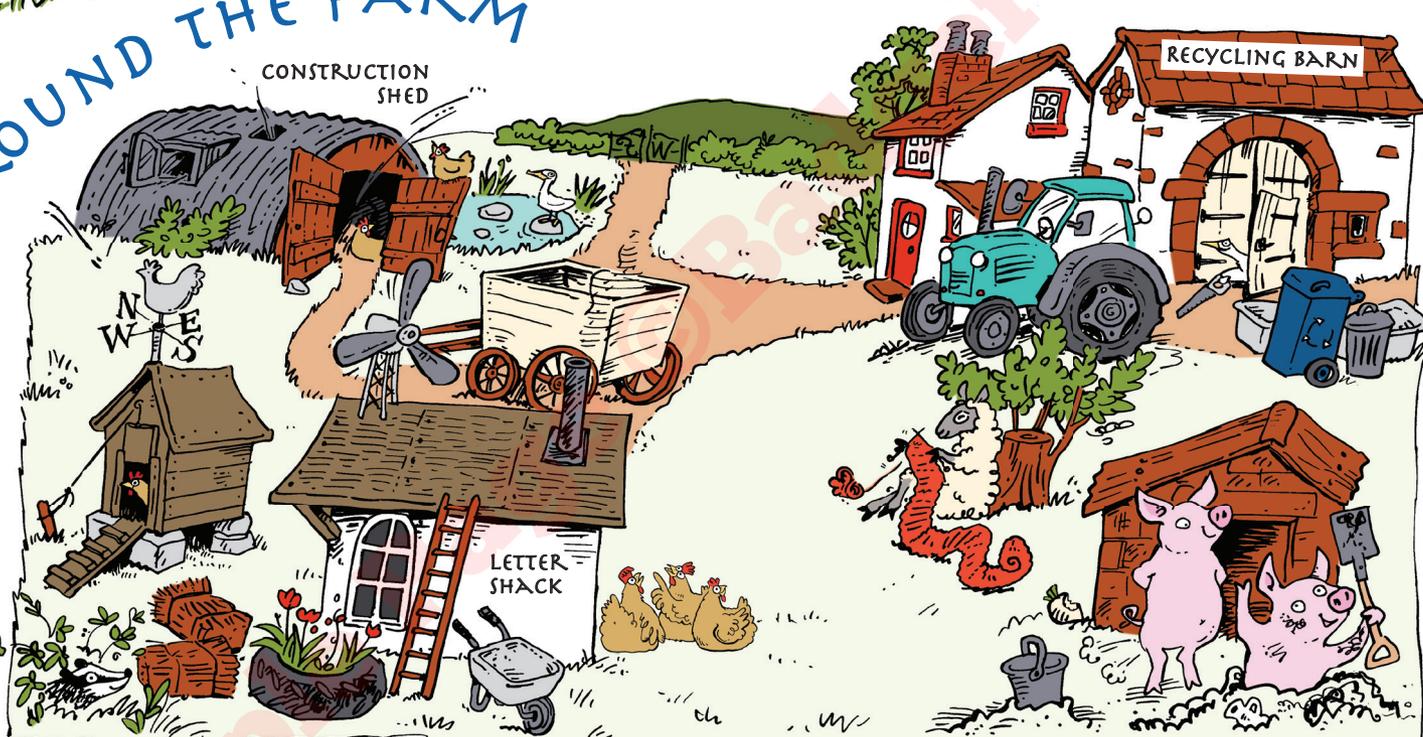

AROUND THE FARM

Letter shack

This is where the chickens hang out.

Eggstein

Eggstein is an egg-straordinarily clever chicken and a proper egghead! He's in charge of the Chicken Picker Crew but he's always crowing on about something...

Recycling barn

This is the place where words are chopped up ready to be reused, but it's also the training ground for ...

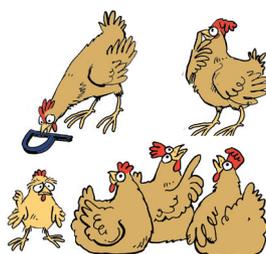

The Duck Squad

These ducks love to pull words apart and break them up into little lettery pieces. Working with chainsaws, sledgehammers or just their highly-trained wings, they can split up words for recycling. The true identity of the Ninja Duck is a mystery...

Chicken Picker Crew

These birds are the real workers on the farm. They sort through the letters and words, choosing which ones need to go together. They're told what to do by Eggstein but he talks so much that they sometimes forget to listen! Who can blame them?

Rooter and Tooter

Rooter and Tooter root out words from all over the world. We'll leave it to you to guess which pig is which!

Terry and Crumb

The two silliest bulls on the farm. They're just too daft for most word work but they try hard to make the other animals smile!

Introduction

There are hundreds of thousands of words in the English language so it's hardly surprising that everyone misspells a word once in a while! Learning the correct spelling for each one of those words would be impossible but help is at hand: learning some simple rules will help you to spell lots of words. This book has been made to help you learn these rules and become a successful speller.

Things to look out for in this book:

Eggstein's hints are really useful and they will make your work easier. Don't forget to read them.

This picture shows you that using a dictionary could help you to answer the questions.

English is made up from lots of other languages and there are some words that don't follow the rules. Examples of these words appear in the Wacky Word Warning signs.

After most sections there's a chance for you to practise your spellings as part of a mini-spelling test. Your teacher will tell you which words to write in the spaces.

Contents	Page
Endings that sound like /shus/ spelt -cious or -tious	3
Endings that sound like /shul/	9
Unstressed vowels	13
Words ending in -ant, -ance/-ancy, -ent, -ence/-ency	14
Words ending in -able and -ible	19
Practising syllable stress	24
Adding suffixes to words ending in -fer	25
Using a hyphen to link words	27
Words containing the letter-string 'ough'	28
/ee/ spelt 'ei' after 'c'	32
Words with 'silent' letters	35
Homophones	39
Root words	47

The animals have been asked to make lots of adjectives ending with the sound /shus/.
This sound can be made using -tious or -cious

pre nutri tious cious ious ious

ious

The chickens were not sure which word ending the sheep needed so they have brought both.

...but which word endings are we supposed to use?

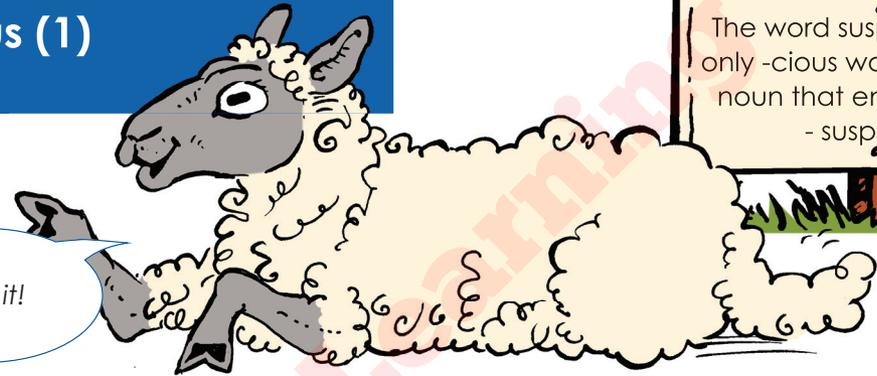

Endings that sound like /shus/ spelt -cious or -tious (1)

Adding -tious

If the start of the word can also have a /shun/ ending then the sheep should add -tious.

Got it!

The word suspicious is the only -cious word that has a noun that ends in /shun/ - suspicion.

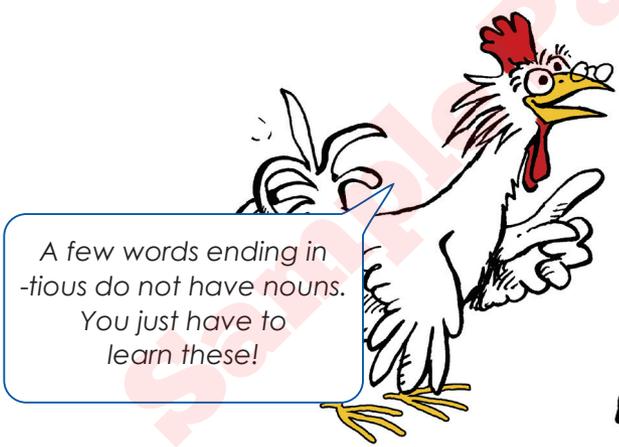

Add -tious to make these nouns into adjectives.

Noun: ambition caution contention expedition infection

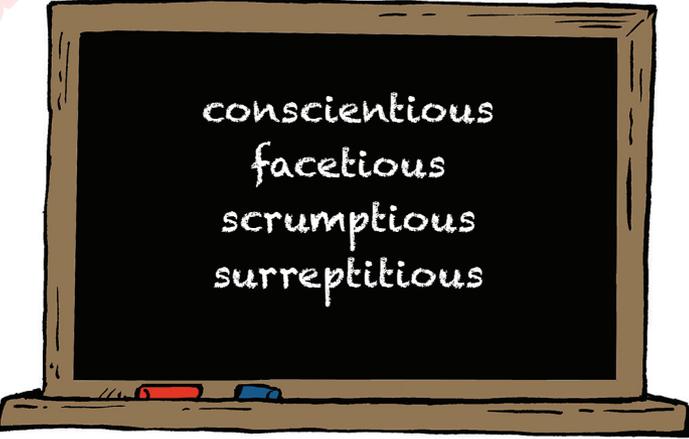

Adjective: ambitious _____ _____ _____ _____

Noun: nutrition ostentation pretention repetition superstition

Adjective: _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

A few words ending in -tious do not have nouns. You just have to learn these!

Endings that sound like /shus/ spelt -cious or -tious (2)

Adding -cious

You should use -cious if the root word ends in 'ce'.

Yolkey-dolkey Eggy.

vice vi ce

vi cious

Change these nouns into adjectives by adding -cious.

office _____ space _____

grace _____

auspice _____ avarice _____ malice _____

Knock, knock!

Who's there?

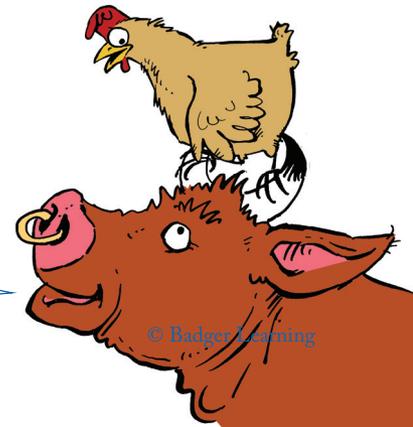

Cious...

Cious who?

Cious me and my chicken!

Endings that sound like /shus/ spelt -cious or -tious (3)

Adding -cious

Add -cious to each of these word beginnings. Can you find out what each word means?

atro cious

auda auspi capa

cons deli fero gra mali

offi

pre spa suspi tena uncons vora

dreadful	atrocious valuable or loved tasty fierce or violent hold onto, determined polite and kind daring and bold not aware bossy, self-important large capacity awake or aware

large or roomy space cruel, wicked doubtful, wary fortunate or promising greedy or keen

ENGLISH

SHARPENER:

Spelling

YEAR 6

J H Rice

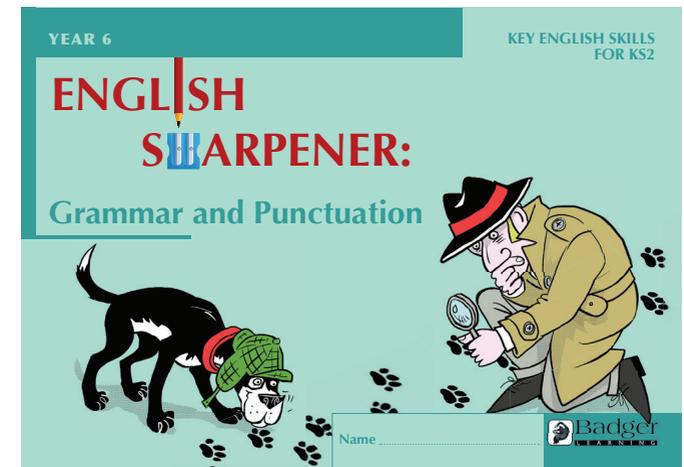

Perfect support for the new KS2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test English Sharpeners is a series of books to help pupils and teachers with the technical requirements of KS2 English. Each book covers the specific aspects of English as described in the KS2 Test for grammar, punctuation and spelling, and the English Curriculum for year 6. Packed full of games and quizzes, these titles will really get your class excited about language. Designed for your pupils to write in, these pupil books are a great way for your class to practice their key English skills.

To help your pupils make sense of spelling, their trusty guide is Eggstein the chicken genius, accompanied by the Chicken Picker Crew who sort through the letters and words, choosing which ones need to go together.

These resources are full of fun but are also serious about getting to grips with spelling. Your pupils will enjoy grappling with the technical side of English and, because they are having fun, will also remember the rules, tricks and lessons to help them fly through their tests.

Other title in the series

Year 6 English Sharpener: Spelling

First published 2013

ISBN 978-1-78147-444-0

Text © J H Rice 2013

Complete work © Badger Publishing Limited 2013

The right of J H Rice to be identified as author of this Work has been asserted by him in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

Once purchased, you may copy this book freely for use in your school.

The pages in this book are copyright, but copies may be made without fees or prior permission provided that these copies are used only by the institution which purchased the book. For copying in any other circumstances, prior written consent must be obtained from the publisher.

Note: Due to the nature of the internet, it is vital that you check internet links before they are used in the classroom.

Publisher: Susan Ross

Senior Editor: Danny Pearson

Editor: Sian Morgan

Designer: Jo Digby, north & south design

Illustrator: Juliet Breese

Printed in the UK

Oldmedow Road,
Hardwick Industrial Estate,
Kings Lynn,
PE30 4JJ

Tel: 01438 791037 fax: 01438 791036
www.badgerlearning.co.uk

ISBN 978-1-78147-444-0

9 781781 474440 >