

CHAPTER 3

Explosive

Ben would not go. In the end the sheriff told him to clean out the cells.

They had not been cleaned for weeks. There was sick, snot and worse. For days Ben cleaned it all up.

He found out that, as well as being rude, the sheriff wasn't very good at his job.

He was also very lazy. He spent a lot of time smoking in the saloon or outside on the path, talking to his friends.

