

CHAPTER 3

Hotel

The hotel rooms were very comfortable, though a bit complicated. There are many types of aliens, and the hotel did its best to make sure that the rooms would work for everyone.

Dan and Ava had never realised how many different ways there were to have a shower or go to the toilet.

The hotel lobby had been full of all sorts of aliens. They must have come from all over this part of the galaxy... wherever this part was.

There were green aliens and pink aliens and multi-coloured aliens. There were aliens with many legs or no legs, and some with tentacles instead of arms.

There was even one alien with three heads, yet the amazing thing was that they all seemed to get on with each other. The aliens that is, not the heads.
