

Fact File

The first bomb dropped on Berlin, Germany, in World War II killed the zoo's only elephant.

World War I fighter pilots, sitting in open cockpits, sometimes shot at each other with pistols.

Unpiloted Combat Air Vehicles (UCAVs) are being developed. These are basically robot aircraft that can be used as reusable missiles.

Glossary

agile	able to move and turn quickly maintenance	taking care of something to keep it working well modified	changed to be used for something else pilot	person who flies a plane radar	a machine used to work out the presence and location of objects refueller	an aircraft that gives other planes fuel in midair stealth	secret and hidden strategic	in war, targets that are very important to find and destroy