

Step eight

Tie thread around the mummy's fingernails and toenails so they don't fall off.

Step nine

Finally, it's time to wrap the mummy in linen bandages. The bandages stop the mummy falling apart in its tomb.

It will take you about a week to wrap a mummy.

It takes 372 square metres of cloth to wrap a mummy. (That's enough to cover a 25 metre swimming pool.)