

Mrs Gee opened an enormous bag.
She tipped everything out onto the floor.

Kela looked at wood blocks
and plastic bottles.
She looked at rocks and bricks.
She then looked at the newspaper.

"Today you will try to build a long and strong bridge,"
said Mrs Gee, smiling.
"Your bridges must be so strong
they can hold a car."

