

Wish fish made wishes come true. Every person had a wish fish that was meant for them. As a Wish Fisher, Sakura could tell who each fish belonged to.

She would deliver each fish to its owner so they could make their wish.

People often wished for things like wonderful feasts or beautiful clothes.

Sakura held the fish. It tingled in her hands and she saw a familiar wrinkly face in her mind. This fish belonged to Mr Tanaka!

Sakura could already tell what Mr Tanaka would wish for.
