

CHAPTER 2

Hold on tight!

Before they knew it, Emily and Jacob were on the rollercoaster. Frank was hiding in Emily's sock!

"Hold on tight!" Albert said.

He lowered the safety bar over their shoulders. It clicked into place and he jumped onto the rollercoaster behind the children.

With a shudder, the car trundled up the track. Emily looked at her grandfather. He was dancing an excited jig on the back of the rollercoaster.

"Shouldn't you be strapped in too?" she asked.

Albert carried on dancing.

"Don't worry, my dear," he said. "I'll jump off long before you reach the loop-the-loop!"

The rollercoaster climbed up and up the track. It seemed like they were riding all the way to the clouds! Finally, it reached the top.

“Here we go!” cheered Albert. The rollercoaster tipped over the edge and whizzed down the other side.

“Wahoo!” shouted Emily.

“Yay!” shouted Jacob.

“Help!” shouted Albert as he tumbled from the rollercoaster.

A parachute popped out of his top hat and the old man floated away.
