

Chapter 4

The Game Is On

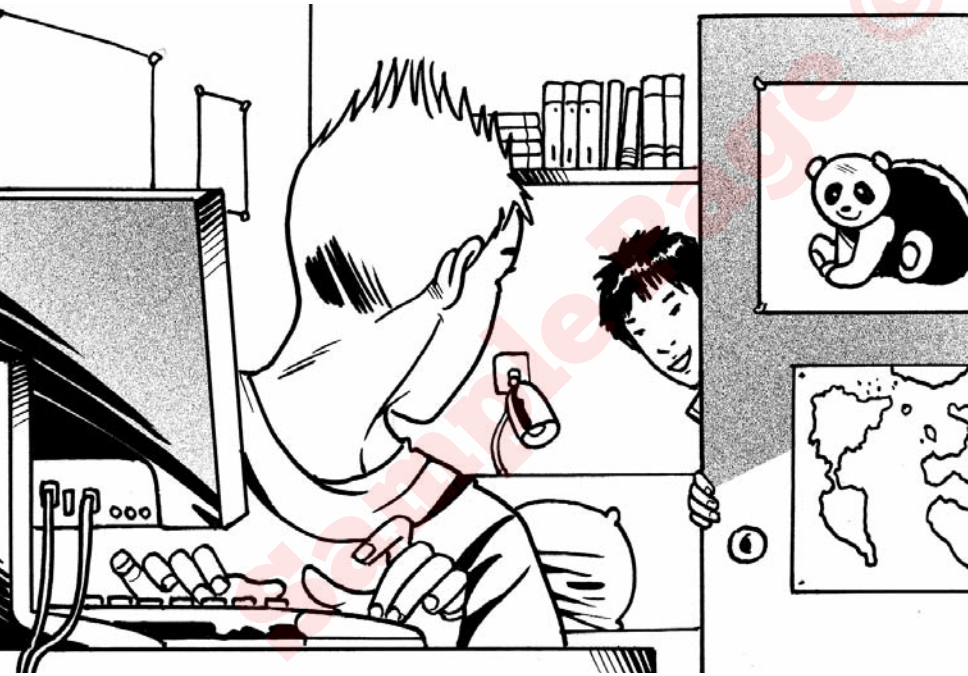

Two weeks later Wei went round to see his friend Mike.

Mike was busy at his computer.

“What are you doing?” asked Wei. “Are you playing my game?”

“I’m not playing your game,” said Mike. “But there are thousands of people all around the world who are.”

Wei shook his head. “What do you mean?”

Mike smiled. “I put your game on the internet. I told people that it was a really great game.”

Wei smiled. “I hope they like it.”

“Like it?” said Mike. “They love it. Look!”
Mike showed Wei his computer.

There were lots of messages from people who had played Wei’s game.
